CASTLEWOOD HIGH SCHOOL

We Dedicate With — —

As an English teacher, Shirley Ann Dishman's enthusiasm and knowledge have helped her students to gain an interesting insight into the areas of literature and grammar. Her abilities are also exhibited in the capable leadership and guidance shown as the sponsor of the "Castletonian" and co-sponsor of the Junior-Senior Prom.

For all these things and many more, we proudly and gratefully dedicate the 1973 "Castletonian" to our friend and teacher, Shirley Ann Dishman.

Love And Appreciation

One Short Sleep Past,

LIFE TO A FRIEND

Life is just a simple thing,
That we can't understand,
This is why we all need help,
From the greatest helping hand.

Life is a gift, that is given to us,
Of which we all can share,
It's not an award that we have won,
It's given to us, from God, with care.

Hardly do we ever think,
Of things we cannot see,
Such as love, we have for friends,
Friends, like you and me.

But now a friend we all have lost,
And another friend he's found,
Because he's in a better place,
Where God controls each sound.

We'd like to say just one more thing,
To you, dear God, we pray,
That all of us, will be together,
As friends, again, someday.

Helen Phillips

TIME

Time was our friend
It brought you closer To us . . .

Time is our enemy
It took you away From us . . .

His time was short
And now
No more . . .

Rosanne Townes

IF YOU WERE BACK

If you were here, we would Hold you tight
And hope and pray you would Never go back . . .

With the one who made all things, you Remain
And we must be content that we will never see you Again . . .

Still in our hearts you will always Stay
And for you soul and ours we will always Pray . . .

DEATH

I thought I saw Death last night,
Walk down a golden street,
With an Angel of snow white, Standing near his feet.

At first I couldn't believe my eyes, Again I looked, and I really do!
I see the wonderful side of Death,
The marbled stairs, the silver pew.

And then I saw an Angel's smile,
And heard her soft voice say,
"Put faith in Me, for I am Death,"
And then she went away.

I looked around, and there were friends,
They all were smiling at me,
And I just couldn't help but say,
"Do you see what I see?"

Then I awoke, to my surprise, Nothing moved, it seemed,
That what I thought was real Had only been a dream.

Milton,
I have enjoyed having you in your class this year. Sometimes I think you are a little crazy but sweet teacher.
Good luck with all the eighth grade you've needed.

Milton,
I have enjoyed
having you in your class.
Hope you get your next year.

Karen Johnson.

Mr. Milton
(5th-7th grades)
You're the best eighth grade Science teacher I ever had. But pity you're not there. Hope you have a good time in the future. Keep in the science in the future (as a teacher). I see you in the near future.
I think you are a little crackers but a still a teacher. Hope you enjoy the good Quarter with all your good classes.

Sincerely

It has been a pleasure being in your science class, and harassing you to death!
Thanks for putting up with me, and I wish you lots of luck in the future.

Your friend,
and mean student,
Marcia (Mushie) ☺

It has been nice having you for a teacher. Best wishes.
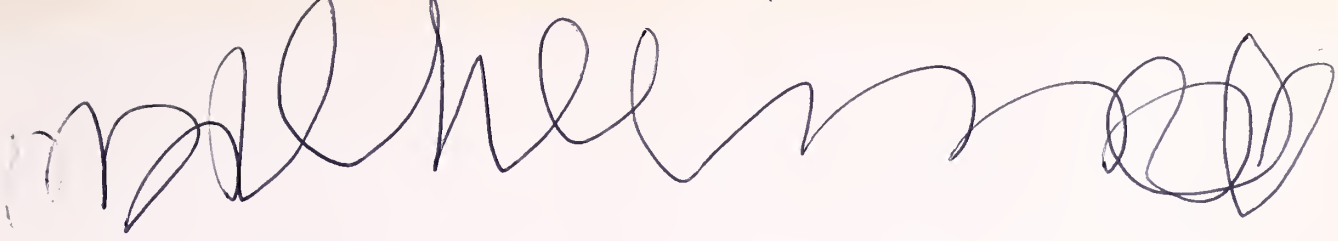
Your friend Ricky



Milton,
I was one of the unlucky ones, I waited till my last year to have you. I guess you are really the one that is lucky you didn't have to try and teach me anything.

Mr. Milton,

Wow! I bet you never did think of me being in your study hall and making everything so great. I bet you'll never forget how a typewriter looks either! I mean forget how to type!! I really enjoyed being in your class.

Love,
6th period study-hall,
Helen

Mr. Milton,

To one of the best teachers at CHS. It has really been great working with you this year. I'll never forget how to type or run anything off as long as you are around. I hope to have you for "something" next year. I'll be a lug senior at last. I wish you the best of luck in everything you do. Be good.

Love,
Lorna
